Dedicated to

Craig Dunn

1959-2023

Craig Dunn covered Logan Chieftain sports for the Logan Daily News and the Logan-Hocking Times from 1976 until 2023. A proud Union Furnace native, Craig loved the athletes of Logan and Hocking County.

Craig was a mentor and more importantly a friend.

Thanks, Craig!

2023 Logan Chieftain Football Preview

By Spencer Waugh, Logan-Hocking Times

Last fall, the Logan Chieftains won three of their final five games and finished the season with an historic 39-0 win at Zanesville. The team was a two-point conversion stop away from earning a Division II playoff spot in a one-point loss at Buckeye Valley.

But that's not the only reason why grid boss Mike Eddy feels good about his football team heading into the 2023 football season.

"Those guys have really bought in," Eddy said of his 2023 squad. "Our offseason program has set some really high expectations, at least in my eyes. It has raised the bar in so far as what we're capable of as a program and as a team. They have earned the right to compete in these football games."

"Since I have been here (at Logan)," he continued, "There have been times when we walked on the field and knew we might have a really tough night ahead of us. I just don't look at this season the same way based on the way they have worked. The guys are doing everything they can."

The offseason program that Coach Eddy and his staff put in place has been important in building team chemistry. It's also helped keep the group together. Logan had 18 players earn letters last year in grades 9-11, and for the first time anyone can remember, all 18 are on the roster heading into the season opener with Jackson on Friday.

The roster lists only eight seniors, 17 juniors, 11 sophomores, and 22 freshmen.

"It's a smaller senior class," Eddy noted. "I was talking to a parent a few weeks ago and they reminded me that even in middle school they were a smaller class and had only like 13 kids in eighth grade." A large, talented, and exuberant freshman class helps stabilize the numbers in the program.

"One thing that has impressed me is that the young guys made a commitment," Eddy said enthusiastically. "As soon as we opened the offseason program to the freshmen (who were eighth graders most of the offseason), I'd say we had 75-percent participation consistently from the young guys. They have really bought in."

Eddy will be in his fifth season as head football coach where his teams have gone 13-26, including a pair of 4-6 seasons in his first and fourth years. The program also returns five assistant coaches and stability on the sidelines. The Chieftains are largely continuing their platoon approach for the coaching staff. Herb Hufford starts his second season as the play caller and offensive coordinator and coaches quarterbacks and running backs. John Teal coaches wide receivers and acts as the special teams coordinator. Eddy oversees the offensive line.

On the other side of the ball, Eddy is also the defensive coordinator. Kelly Wolfe coaches defensive backs and Pat Walsh leads the linebackers.

Curtis Rose, a 1988 LHS grad and who is widely regarded as the best lineman to ever wear the Purple & White, joins the staff coaching tight ends and running backs following the departures of Coy Blair and Rich Bell. Adam Perry, an Ohio University student, is helping in a volunteer capacity as a defensive assistant.

In their last season as an independent, Logan will battle some familiar faces in Jackson, Warren, Chillicothe, Athens, and Zanesville. Teays Valley, a future Ohio Capital Conference foe, is back as well as Sheridan and Fort Frye. Jackson, Chillicothe, Sheridan, and Fort Frye were all playoff qualifiers a year ago.

Marietta returns to the schedule for the first time since 2010. The two schools were Southeastern Ohio Athletic League foes from 1985 until the Tigers left the league following the 2010 season. Minford is the final opponent making just their second appearance on Logan's schedule.

A welcome surprise was the return of senior quarterback Wyatt Woodgeard (6-0, 175).

Woodgeard won the starting quarterback job a year ago but suffered a season ending injury against Sheridan in the third week of the season. Doctors feared the freak shoulder injury might end his career.

"We didn't know if he'd be cleared to play," Eddy recalled. "So, we had opened the quarterback competition, and Wyatt took that personal. Not that he said anything or made an issue – we could just see it in his attitude. In his mind it was his job, and someone was going to have to take it from him. He didn't slow down; he came in with great work ethic."

"I don't think myself or his teammates truly understand the sacrifice and the work that has gone into him being able to even play football again," Eddy continued. "They had multiple surgeries, flew him around to doctors and specialists. His injury was sort of unprecedented, so the doctors and folks had to figure out how to fix it. So, the amount of rehab and stress to get to this point- it says so much about his work ethic and how much this means to him."

Woodgeard will be the starting quarterback, and a captain, when Logan takes the field at Jackson. He completed 11 of 26 passes for 112 yards with two interceptions in 2022, but only played a little over two games before his injury.

Joining Woodgeard as captains are classmates Jack Brown (5-10, 200) and Lucas Wolfe (6-4, 190), along with a pair of juniors in Jack Walsh (5-10, 165) and Kallen Wilson (5-10, 245).

"(Brown) has been an important piece in what we've been doing for a few years now," Eddy said of his linebacker and running back. "He's a leader. He's played so many positions for us and that versatility is a real strength. He's a kid who texts me after we get opponent film and will ask if I'm seeing certain tendencies in our opponents."

Wolfe, a tight end and defensive end, emerged as a leader over the summer.

"He had never put himself out there as a leader, or by being vocal," Eddy explained. "But he had a really outstanding baseball season in the spring, and I think he got a confidence boost. He came into our summer program as a completely different kid. The kids now listen for his voice when things aren't going our way. It's a voice of encouragement, he's positive and team oriented. He has the respect of this football team."

As just the fifth and sixth underclassmen to serve as captains, the two juniors are rarities in Chieftain football history.

Wilson led the team last fall playing a team high 989 snaps on offense and defense as a sophomore. The guard and defensive lineman will also handle the placekicking duties again.

Walsh joins his older brother, Brady, and father, Pat, who previously served as captains. The junior moved from quarterback to receiver to help the team this fall and has emerged as the type of leader who keeps his teammates accountable.

“I have to remind myself that this football team only returns a few starters, and we only have a handful of seniors” admitted Eddy.

“But I really think we’re waiting for the other shoe to drop as they say,” Eddy concluded. “I think once these guys realize the level they can compete at, that’s when it’s really going to start for these guys.”

Position by Position:

Offense

Offensively, the Chieftains started slow last season. Over the entire season the team averaged 16.9 points and 240 yards per game with just over 200 of those yards coming on the ground. But in the first five games, Logan did not score more than eight in a single game.

In their final five games, however, the Purple & White averaged 28 points and 275 yards per game. The increase largely coincided with the increased role of senior quarterback Brayden Sturgell and his use as a shotgun change of pace quarterback. Expect that to be a bigger part of the offense this fall.

“We’re going to look different on offense,” revealed Eddy. “In fact, Coach Hufford and I joke that when our fans come out, they’re going to think it’s a whole new offensive scheme. But we think of it more as a phase two from what we did last season.”

“We’re going to be a ‘ways not plays’ style of offense,” Eddy continued. “Instead of eight plays and three formations, we might only run three plays but run them eight different ways. We’ll have a lot more read and run-pass-option oriented play. We’re going to make defenders wrong.”

Expect the quarterback to have more responsibility and be more dynamic. Last season, Logan completed only 38 of 81 passes for 398 yards and a single touchdown. All those numbers should increase this fall. “As we transition from an under center wing-t to more of a gun style wing-t, it’s changed the role of the quarterback,” he pointed out. “Last year our quarterback was a ball handler first. He had to be able to hide the ball, carry out fakes, and occasionally throw a nice play action pass. He was much more of a game manager.”

“But now it’s going to be a dynamic role where we expect our quarterback to make reads post-snap. That makes the decision making a lot different and it takes a ton of repetitions to get that right and to make everyone comfortable.”

As a staff, the LHS coaches have to learn to live in a little less comfortable of a space as well.

“One thing I learned at a coaching clinic a few years ago that made an impact on me was that if your quarterback misses a read, don’t tell him he’s wrong,” Eddy remembered. “Ask him, ‘what did you see?’ And then tell him what he should do the next time he sees that. That way you’re always building confidence and helping him to be confident in what he is seeing.”

The Chiefs started camp with a three-way battle for the quarterback job. Wyatt Woodgeard (6-0, 175, senior) and Jack Walsh (5-10, 165, junior) returned after both starting last season. Freshman Carson Tootle (6-4, 180) was also very much involved in the competition.

Last fall, Woodgeard completed 11 of 26 passes for 112 yards with a pair of interceptions, while Walsh completed 14 of 29 passes for 151 yards, including the team's only touchdown pass, and three interceptions.

"Jack (Walsh) is such a versatile player, he can play quarterback, wingback, receiver, and tight end," Eddy praised. "But because of that versatility, we really moved him to those other jobs where he can best help the team. He'll still rep some as the emergency quarterback, but it just made him and everyone else better for him to transition out of the quarterback room."

According to Eddy, it's no secret that Tootle has the best arm in the program.

"From a physical standpoint, he has the look. When he hits that third step in the drop, he can throw it just about anywhere you want him to," Eddy said. "But he's still a freshman. The speed of the game is such a jump, you can't hold the ball for an extra half second or it's going to get deflected."

"Coach Hufford's favorite phrase for Carson is, 'You're not in Kansas anymore, Dorothy.' But he's never shied away. He wants to be our starting quarterback. We have put him in challenging situations and he's working to answer that call. He has not shied away. He's still developing and has a bright future for us." Wolfe, a former head coach, play caller, and quarterback coach, has been spending a session during practice away from his role on the defense to help the quarterbacks.

"We felt as a staff that we were adequate at best there," Eddy explained, "So Coach Wolfe has been very helpful in making us better there and getting these guys some one-on-one coaching. It's making a huge difference for us."

Woodgeard won the starting job due to his consistency, experience, and work ethic, according to Eddy. "Wyatt has done a great job thus far. He doesn't make the same mistake twice and he is excellent at self-assessment. He will take some risks, but I'd rather him be overconfident than not confident enough." "We're going to be asking our quarterback to run a little more too, even if it's just three yards. And Wyatt's been really good at gritting out those tough yards in the heart of the defense."

The changing quarterback role has a ripple effect on the rest of the backfield.

"One of the biggest changes from under center to gun is the alignment of our running backs," Eddy explained. "We've sort of eliminated our B-back (fullback). The quarterback has a lot of that responsibility. Now our weak half will now line-up beside the quarterback and our strong half is still on the wing. That third running back is more of a slot receiver."

Kaden Morgan (5-7, 150, junior) is the offense's top returner from a statistical standpoint. Morgan gained 517 yards and scored five touchdowns on 78 carries and caught eight passes for 80 yards.

Morgan will line-up beside Woodgeard in the backfield. Chris Gompf (5-10, 175, junior) will be the next man up in that spot. Gompf ran for 235 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 67 carries a year ago.

"He's running the same plays, but from a different alignment," Eddy said of his primary ballcarrier. The wing-back role has evolved during camp. Jack Brown (5-10, 200, senior) and Talon Thompson (5-6, 155, junior) will be the starter and back-up, respectively, and Gompf could see time there as well. Brown gained 62 yards on 21 tries and caught a pass for 10 yards a year ago.

“Our wingbacks weren’t really lead blockers last season,” Eddy explained. “Mostly they were smoke and mirrors or a ball carrier. Now they have to be able to block and be a ballcarrier. We didn’t quite have the consistency we wanted so we moved Jack (Brown) over from tight end after the first scrimmage.”

Brown made a couple of nice runs and gave the team a strong point-of-attack blocker.

It’s left the team lighter at tight end than Eddy would like. Lucas Wolfe (6-4, 190, senior) will be the full-time starter with Maddox Arnett (6-1, 175, junior) expected to spell Wolfe instead of just being a third tight end.

“We use the tight end so much that we need to develop more depth there,” Eddy admitted. “We can’t expect these guys to not get a break. So, it’ll be great if the other wingbacks can develop and allow us to move Jack (Brown) back over to tight end.”

Walsh will be the X receiver with Noah Daugherty (6-0, 170, junior), Austin Weinsziehr (6-1, 155, junior), and Jim Carver (6-4, 190, freshman) expected to add depth.

Walsh brings needed experience to a position that lost all three rotators from last season and Weinsziehr and Daugherty were used here with the JV team last fall. Carver has a lot of upside, but is still a freshman.

“Carver is still taking his lumps and learning the system,” said Eddy. “But the physical tools are there.”

“Jack will be the first guy in and will play on key downs,” Eddy noted. “Coach Teal does a great job getting these guys to be what I want... which is to be wide tackles. They have to buy into being blockers first. And then embrace the idea that the more you block well, the more chance you’ll get in our downfield passing game.”

The most dynamic position and the one that might have Eddy and his offensive staff most excited is the slot receiver, which is new to the offense.

“We really wanted that explosive type player who can take the top off the defense,” Eddy explained. “A kid we can use to manipulate the defense and create matchups and get into different spaces. He can be strong side, weak side... make the defense change coverage and account for him. We can use him in motion as a ballcarrier.”

Jeremy Fraley (5-6, 125, junior) will be the starter in the slot, but Jacob Kahrig (5-8, 125, junior) and Blake Alford (6-0, 165, sophomore) can also make an impact. Fraley and Alford are two of the fastest kids on the football team and Kahrig isn’t far behind.

“Jacob has done a nice job, but unfortunately he didn’t play last year, so he needs to get that football experience back. Blake is coming along and loves to be in space but needs to get used to the physical side of the game.”

“Our skill players are not big human beings,” admitted Eddy. “We have to consider that in how we use them. How much abuse can they handle? So being able to rotate and limit the exposure will be important.”

The offensive line might be one of the best Eddy has had.

“One thing we looked at in the offseason was the strength and weaknesses of our linemen. Last year there were times that Coach Hufford had to pay attention to which play he was running behind each tackle. They don’t have the same skill set,” Eddy said.

“So, we made the decision to just flip the guys by situation. We do it with everyone else. So, if it helps put these guys in better situations to succeed, then we decided to do it. That means we’ll have strong side guards and tackles and then weak side ones.”

The Chieftains feel like they have four tackles – two strong and two weak. And then repeat that at the guard position.

Aiden Hite (6-3, 315, senior) is a returning starter and will be on the strong side.

“He wasn’t a starter at the beginning of last season, but earned a starting role last season,” Eddy stated. “He has great experience. He’s a smart kid – not just football smart – we put in these new read and RPO concepts and he immediately could explain how it would affect our players’ responsibilities, even before I explained it.”

“He’s his own worst critic. I don’t have to over coach him.”

Sophomore Talen Alford (6-2, 280) will start on the weakside after earning a letter as a freshman last fall. Senior Kobe Hodge (6-3, 270) and junior Elijah Yates (6-1, 265) will be the backups at weak and strong side tackle, respectively.

Kallen Wilson (5-10, 245, junior), a returning starter, will be the weakside guard and Avery Linton (5-10, 205, senior,) who was a spot starter and will be on the strongside.

“Wilson is more physical, but he could honestly play all five spots on our offense line,” Eddy praised the junior. “Avery does things naturally that are hard to teach. That’s a huge plus. Being able to read and react comes really naturally with him.”

“In our system,” Eddy continued, “we put our guards in tough spots. They have to be able to think like a running back with the pulling we do.”

A pair of sophomores will be the backups for the two guard positions.

Kive Rose (5-9, 190) earned a letter last fall and will mostly play on the weak side, while Duncan Micochero (5-8, 225) will be the on the strong side.

At center, Noah Markin (6-0, 270, junior) will be the starter and Dallas Brooks (6-0, 205, sophomore) will get the reps as the number two.

“The most important thing in this offense is for the snap to be there so the quarterback can make the reads, and Noah has been very consistent,” Eddy concluded.

Defense

The 2022 Chieftains made a leap defensively, holding opponents to just 21.1 points per game and 283 yards per game, including a shut-out of Zanesville to finish the season. The team intercepted 10 opponent passes, the most since Logan pilfered 12 aerials in 2015, and only the third time since 2010 when they recorded double figures in interceptions.

But only three starters return for the defense.

“We’re going to be a more of a true 4-4, cover 3 defense than I’ve been most of my career,” Eddy pointed out. “Sometimes I have a tendency to overcoach. I want to understand everything the offense wants to do and then scheme to take it away, but that doesn’t always put our kids in the best position physically or mentally to be successful. So, I’m trying to simplify and let our kids go out and play football a little bit.”

Fortunately, one of the three returnees is Jack Brown, who led the team with 83 tackles and was co-leader with four sacks. The other two are Wilson and Linton who will anchor the defensive line.

Wilson played nearly every meaningful snap on defense and can play both inside and at the strong side end. Linton and Wilson will both play the bulk of the snaps on defense but play the same two roles.

“It’s been kind of a revolving door at our end spots,” Eddy said. “Wolfe and Arnett will rotate on the weak side with Wilson and Linton on the strong side. But Wolfe can also play on the strong side while Arnett really is a true weak side end.”

Wolfe made 15 stops last fall as his role increased later in the season, while Arnett was primarily a JV player. Linton made eight stops and recovered a blocked punt for a touchdown.

The more Eddy can get out of his rotation, the more he’ll be able to play Wilson on the inside, where he was disruptive a year ago. Wilson had 42 total tackles, including three for loss and three sacks, while causing a team high four fumbles.

“We’re hoping to play Kallen more on the inside,” continued Eddy. “We’re going to count on Elijah Yates (6-1, 265, junior) and Dominik Graham (6-1, 285, junior) as well.”

Yates also saw his playing time increase toward the end of last season, where he made 19 stops and recovered a fumble.

“A lot of where those (interior) guys line up is based on what they’ll see from a blocking concept,” Eddy explained. “Strong side tackle is going to get tripped or read more than the Nose.”

“The Nose is bigger, less mobile and more of a plugger,” he continued. “That’s a guy who is going to squeeze gaps or chase a puller.”

Kody Yates (5-10, 205, senior) is a player Eddy and the staff hope emerges to give more depth on the defensive line.

“That’s a kid we are trying to find a role for,” Eddy revealed. “We see the work that kid puts in, and we want to reward that. In the weightroom or in conditioning, he’s a guy that puts in the work. As coaches, it is our job to find a way for him to help us. He’s got the right attitude and mindset.”

Pass rush is an area where Eddy feels his team can improve a lot.

“I’m not a believer that you defend the pass in the secondary,” Eddy emphasized. “It’s something you do in the backfield (with a pass rush). That’s not something we did well the last couple of years to be honest.”

“We play a lot of good quarterbacks,” he continued. “If you give those guys time, they’ll find an open guy. So (pass rush) has been a point of emphasis. Both developing pass rushers and then scheming up pressure and making the right calls from a coaching standpoint.”

Brown will be one of the inside linebackers and will be joined by Gompf. Just like at guard, Rose and Micochero will be the main backups in the linebacking corps.

What Eddy has referred to as SAM and Adjuster will be much more like traditional outside linebackers in a 4-4 defense this fall.

“The guys we had last year – Brooks and Sturgell – were probably our best ‘football players,’” Eddy noted. “We can’t replace that level of ability and experience with just the next kid so we have to adapt a little.”

“We’re going to be more balanced and interchangeable. Those guys might flip week to week based on the opponent. Walsh is going to be a little more physical while Kaden is more comfortable in space.”

Morgan will be a starter after making 22 stops, including two for loss, in a rotating role late last season.

“Kaden is more of an instinct player,” explained Eddy. “He’s better with minimal instruction. He gets a base alignment and we tell him to go make football plays.”

Walsh, an experienced quarterback, started the season playing adjuster last year before moving to offense only when had to take over the starting quarterback role. He recorded nine tackles and broke up a pass with limited playing time.

“Jack’s a kid who has made the biggest development from last year to this year,” Eddy posited. “Physically, he has changed his body. He’s physically a different player. He holds himself accountable – almost to a fault. He wants to be perfect and sometimes I have to remind him to just go make the next play. He’s sets the tone emotionally. When he makes a play, the kids react.”

Cody Hartman (5-5, 140, sophomore) and Daugherty are the next guys up at outside linebacker. The rest of the secondary is brand new.

“We have to break in a whole new group,” lamented Eddy.

“Weinsziehr and Thompson have separated themselves,” explained Eddy. “They’re the starters. But Kahrig and Blake Alford competed with those two and aren’t far from being able to push for more playing time.”

At free safety, Fraley made one start last fall and is the only returner who made an interception last season.

“The free safety, because of who he is (being a smaller player), we’re coaching him to be more of a traditional center field type. He has the speed to play sideline to sideline which is rare,” Eddy revealed. “Whereas I have typically used a free safety who can get downhill and play run support. So philosophically it is different, but it fits our personnel.”

Woodgeard can play all three of the secondary jobs, if necessary, but will be held back as long as possible with his job as the starting quarterback.

“We’ve simplified our coverages – we’re only running three,” admitted Eddy. “These guys are true coverage DBs, they are not going to give the run support I am used to. But Coach Wolfe is doing a great job getting them ready.”

“That group has to make the biggest leap if we want to get to where we believe we should be,” he concluded.

Special Teams:

Wilson returns at placekicker after converting 16 of 20 PATs and his only field goal attempts (21 yards). But he’ll have competition for the job in his co-captain, Walsh.

“Walsh will be doing kickoffs for us,” began Eddy. “He can place the ball outside the hash and inside the ten yard line pretty consistently. He’s on the verge of being a really good kickoff guy for us. And while Kallen will do extra point and field goals, Jack is getting closer.”

Tootle will be the holder with Wolfe doing short snapping.

Brown will be the punter. He averaged nearly 29.8 yards per boot as a sophomore in 2021, but was the backup punter to departed Ryan Harden last season.

Gompf returns as the longsnapper.

Fraley and Morgan will handle the kick return duty while Fraley will be the punt returner.

Top 10 LHS Traditions

Below are the top 10 traditions related to Logan High School football, as chosen by LoganFootball.com.

Tradition

10. - The Robert Dee Gabriel Memorial Color Guard. They present the colors before each home game, a unique part of the Chieftain pre-game, and just another aspect that makes Football Fridays on the Hilltop special.

9. - Tomahawk Award Stickers. These stickers were first given out in the late-1960s. The decals have changed over time, but they decorate Chieftain helmets to this day.

8. - Hitting the "WIN" sign as the team leaves the locker room. The origin of the "WIN" sign is unknown, but every kid who walks into the locker room knows its importance. Even if you're walking out for gym class, it's hard not to put your fist on the sign.

7. - The Pre-Game Pile Jump. Following the run through "Tunnel 'L'," members of the Varsity football team form a mass of purple while the last couple of players, usually captains and seniors, jump on top of the pile to give final words of encouragement.

6. - Singing the LHS Fight Song after every win. Following every win, the Chieftains gather at mid-field to sing the LHS Fight Song. This is especially sweet after victories over rivals on the road or after clinching the SEOAL title at home.

5. - Willie Dicken's "Touchdown, Logan." Following every Logan touchdown, two famous words shout over the loudspeakers at Bill Sauer Field, Touchdown, Logan!

4. - Fast Entrance. The Logan Marching Chieftains signature entrance. One of the most unique spectacles in all of high school sports. Helps define Friday Nights on the Hilltop.

3. - Victory Bell. We're still researching the origins of the LHS Victory Bell that rings out following every Chieftain Victory. Following the singing of the LHS Fight Song, the boys sprint to the East Gates to let the sweet sound of victory ring!

2. - Senior Walk. Starting by the Seniors of 2001, following the final home game, all the seniors join arms and take one final walk across Bill Sauer Field. Although it is a new tradition, it's one that has grown quickly. It's a bitter sweet moment and a fitting end to a long journey.

1. - Tunnel "L." If you talk to current or former players, they'll tell you there is no bigger rush than running through the Logan Marching Chieftain's "Tunnel 'L'" just before kick-off. With thousands of fans on their feet, it's one of the loudest moments of the evening.
